“Fear not for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you, Yes, I will help you. I will uphold you with My righteous right hand” (Isaiah 41:10 NKJV).

I live in God’s country in the Pacific Northwest in the USA. Mountains and pine trees mean home to me. I delight in finding God’s presence in creatures and nature. I live with two elderly kitties and visit my 2 children and nine grandsons as often as possible. I write a weekly devotional blog and clean, fun romances.

Wild Rose Ridge, Christian Small Town Romance

Wild Rose Ridge, a small town in Central Washington State, was created by a group of authors in a “Huddle” from Novel Academy. We met together in a retreat to brainstorm and bring a storyworld to life. It has grown to include contemporary and historical eras with a grand total, so far, of thirty-nine titles. With more coming. We are having a grand time and hope our readers are loving these stories as much as we do.

What’s Coming for Linda Jo Reed

A new historical series called the Inland Empire is in the works. Set in the early days of Spokane Washington, and the North Idaho Panhandle. The mines in Idaho had the wealth, but it funneled through Spokane when the railroads arrived and built a city in an empire. An exciting time.
