

God Is Your Rearguard

Our Commander is closely concerned with our victory. He has already provided for it and is fervent that we claim it. However, even though provision has been made, battles must yet be fought. He expects us to use the weapons he has furnished.

A variety of arms are available to us.

Acknowledging our God through worship must be first. Without Him, nothing is possible. But with Him, all things are possible. Our worship is a sweet offering when He receives it. He has told us so. When we join our forces with His, we have joined with the Power of all Eternity. There is none like Him.

The Scriptures are given for our instruction. "All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, that the man (or woman) of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work,"

II Timothy 3:16,17. NKJV

So far, we are well covered by our Commander.

But, wait! There is more!

He has given us community, as well. All of us are in need of help at times in our lives. Communities boast churches, agencies, counselors, families, friends and other helpers for us. We may even be one of them for someone else. Our commander is interested in our wholeness and our fitness to fight for His Kingdom.

We have each other's backs. We march together.

"Now may our God and Father, Himself, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way to you. And may the Lord make you increase and abound in love to one another and to all, just as we do to you, so that He may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all His saints" I Thessalonians 3:11-13. NKJV
