

I'll Wait As Long As You Say

What is the invitation? To experience His Presence in all areas of our lives and therefore to live fully and well!

Waiting is not easy these days when we expect instant everything. The web is at our fingertips, email, texting, and all the other communication aids.

But God is not in a hurry to fashion His masterpieces – each of us!

Consider the following for journaling:

- 1) What does waiting mean?
- 2) What kinds of levels are there?
- 3) What does it accomplish?

Waiting is active—not passive. There is glory at the Summit!

Wait (and journal about it) because:

- You know He loves you
- You know He has your best interests at heart
- You can trust Him
- He provides a safe place to wait
- His plan is best and will bring Him glory
- There is hope in Him
- He gives you strength for the task ahead
- He gives you confidence in the quiet
- All will come together in His timing
- You are never alone
- No need to fear failure or falling
- He listens to your heart
- You can listen to His heart

Jesus was unhurried and in the moment. Even with the crowds pressing Him. He always found the time to rest with His Father. To wait.

Funny – waiting for an answer doesn't seem to come up. Will you wait with Him?
